"Welcome one another as Christ has welcomed you for the glory of God" states St Paul Romans 15:7.

Our God is a welcoming God and His Son,
Jesus, also welcomes everyone into His presence.
As parishioners of St John the Baptist parish we too wish to display this same welcoming attitude.

And so we say,

"Welcome to each of you who visit our Church.
Welcome into our lives of faith, of family and of community.

May God Bless You with Peace and All Good Gifts!

January 16, 2022 ~ 2nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Jesus did this as the beginning of his signs at Cana in Galilee and so revealed his glory.

“They have no wine.” “So what?” “Do whatever he tells you.”

From that instant she left it to him.

To us; “do what he says: love God, love your neighbor, make a home for the Spirit.” We will.

Let us leave everything to you, Lord. We want to trust you the way Mary did.

Please we are water. Turn us into wine.

Like Mary at Cana, let us make an effort to be more attentive in our squares and towns, to notice those whose lives have been “watered down,” who have lost—or have been robbed of—reasons for celebrating; those whose hearts are saddened. And let us not be afraid to raise our voices and say: “they have no wine.”

Sunday Readings

Isaiah 62:1-5

As a bridegroom rejoices in his bride, so shall your God rejoice in you.

1 Corinthian 12:4-11

There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit; there are different forms of service but the same Lord.

John 2:1-11

Jesus said, “Everyone serves good wine first, and then when people have drunk freely, an inferior one; but you have kept the good wine until now.”

WORD FROM POPE FRANCIS

We go to Mass because we are sinners and we want to receive God’s pardon, to participate in the redemption of Jesus, in his forgiveness. The confession which we make at the beginning is not pro forma. It is a real act of repentance! I am a sinner and I confess it—this is how the Mass begins!

*General Audience
February 12, 2014*

PRAYER Lord, send your Spirit and empower me to use my gifts and talents for the common good of all people.

*From Peaceful Meditations for Every Day In Ordinary Time.

Reflection Questions

It can look chaotic, but slowly the ideal takes shape and the beauty of the marriage tapestry comes into view.

God will marry us, says the prophet. He will take us as his own, giving us the gifts of his Spirit to enrich us. Together, we will bear fruit of new life in ourselves and others.

- In God’s love the ideal I try to emulate in my relationships, especially marriage?
- God is the main protagonist in my relationships. Do I try to listen to his inspirations?
- To Mary’s “they have no wine,” Jesus’ response was, “what concern is it to you or me?” Instead of backing off, Mary tells the servers to “do whatever he tells you.” Mary trusted that he would somehow solve the problem. If this trust rates a 10, where would you put your trust when you “don’t back off, “ but go to God with your concerns?

Living Stewardship – Pillar of Prayer

In today’s Gospel, Jesus and Mary attend a wedding. When the wine ran out, Mary interceded to Jesus on the couple’s behalf to re-fill the wine.

As Mary interceded for the newlyweds, let us ask her to intercede for us as well. This week pray extra Hail Mary’s and ask her for the wisdom and courage to “do whatever He tells you.”

For all couples who will be married in our church this year.

We pray to the Lord....

January 23, 2022 ~ 3rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

He has anointed me to bring glad tidings to the poor.

Jesus, rise, spread out the scroll—like Ezra, your priest-scribe—and declare to the people and to us that God is in our midst this day.

Oh earth, you are holy now.

Holy Spirit, touch our being and our doing.

Let us feed and shelter the poor, welcome immigrants, free the prisoners, fix climate crisis. Brush our days, with grace.

Good news. A single word—Gospel—that, even as it is spoken, becomes truth brimming with joy and mercy. We should never attempt to separate these three graces of the Gospel: its truth, which is non-negotiable; its mercy, which is unconditional and offered to all sinners; and its joy, which is personal and open to everyone.

Sunday Readings

Nehemiah 8:2-4a, 5-6, 8-10

Ezra read clearly from the book of the law of God, interpreting it so that all could understand what was read.

1 Corinthians 12:12-30 or 12:12-14,27

As a body is one though it has many parts, and all the parts of the body, though many, are one body, so also Christ.

Luke 1:1-4, 4:14-21

The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to bring glad tidings to the poor.

Bulletin Reflections

Knowing God's truth is the deepest source of joy. Finding him is like finding what was lost.

- Is there any aspect of God's word or truth that I have ignored or forgotten?
- How can I rediscover and accept that truth again?
- Jesus went to Nazareth, his hometown, People there thought of him as Mary & Joseph's son. Suddenly he claims to be the Messiah. What would your reaction have been to such a declaration?

PRAYER Lord, you created all people equal. Open my eyes to recognize the dignity of all people and my heart to love unconditionally.

Every in Ordinary Time*

A Word From Pope Francis

Without Christ we are condemned to be dominated by everyday weariness, with its worries, and by fear of the future. The Sunday encounter with the Lord gives us the strength to experience the present with confidence and courage, and go forth with hope. For this reason, we Christians go to encounter the Lord... In the Eucharistic celebration.

Living Stewardship – Pillar of Service

In today's Gospel, Jesus reads a scroll from Isaiah.

As we hear in the Second Reading, we are all a part of the one body—each of us has our own part. Have you considered how you could be of service to Christ's Church? Look in your bulletin or ask your pastor how you could serve at the parish.

For all those involved in the ministries of our parish.

We pray to the Lord....
