Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

January 17, 2021

“They saw where Jesus was staying, and they stayed with Him all day.”

Jesus asked, “What are you looking for?” Something... They weren’t sure what.

So, they answered with a question: “Where are you staying?” “Come and see.” They came and stayed with him in his ordinary place. And they found what they had been seeking.

Christ, take us to your space. We want to spend our time with you. Let us find your radiance, right here, right now, always, in our everyday lives.

Here I am Lord, I Come to do Your Will. – First reading from the first Book of Samuel

In today’s readings we are given two similar prayers with which to ponder the life of discipleship. The psalm refrain “Here I am, Lord; I come to do your will” is very similar to Samuel’s response to the divine voice calling him by name: “Speak, Lord, for your servant is listening.” Both express an awareness of God’s presence and also complete trust in God’s plan and action in their lives. As the psalmist recounts, however, the life of discipleship is not always straightforward and can require a good deal of patience.

This week take time to pray with the words from the psalm response. What does it mean to show up each day in your relationship with God and to be eager to do God’s will?

Sunday Readings

1 Samuel 3:3b-10, 19

So Eli said to Samuel, “Go to sleep, and if you are called, reply, ‘Speak, LORD, for your servant is listening.’”

1 Corinthians 6:13c-15a, 17-20

Do you not know that your body is a temple of the holy Spirit within you?

John 1:35-42

Jesus said, “You are Simon the son of John; you will be called Cephas (which is translated Peter).”

Jesus’ call is simple: Follow me.

Our response should be simple, too: yes or no.

Reflection Questions:

In baptism and confirmation, we take new names that come with our new, deeper calls. It is a meaningful Catholic tradition that parents name their children after a saint who becomes a model for their lives.

- Are you named after a saint or someone in particular?
- If so, how does that saint or person inspire you?

Living Stewardship – Pillar of Service

This week perform an act of service for yourself – exercise to the best of our ability. In today’s second reading, we hear that our body is a temple of the Holy Spirit. Keep that temple healthy and in order.

For Pope Francis, all bishops and priests.

We pray to the Lord....

PRAYER Lord, draw me close to your heart that I may come to know and love you more deeply.

A WORD from POPE FRANCIS

Jesus does not want disciples who are merely able to repeat memorized formulas. He wants witnesses: people who spread hope, with their way of welcoming, smiling and loving; above all loving because the power of the resurrection makes Christians capable of loving even when love seems to have lost its motivation.

Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

January 24, 2021

The kingdom of God is at hand. Repent and believe in the Gospel

At a moment when “time was running out” for evil Nineveh, God did something extraordinary: he raised up Jonah to preach repentance to “the great city.” When “Jesus came proclaiming the Gospel of God,” Christ’s first action was to call men from the sea to preach to the world. The compassion, the love, the kindness and the goodness of God shine forth in the witness of these humble believers who leave nets, boats and father to follow Jesus. When we pray to God, “Teach me your paths,” Jesus responds, “Come after me.”

Sunday Readings

Jonah 3:1-5, 10

The people of Nineveh believed God; they proclaimed a fast and all of them, great and small, put on sackcloth.

1 Corinthians 7:29-31

I tell you, brothers, the time is running out...For the world in its present form is passing away.

Mark 1:14-20

Jesus said to them, “Come after me, and I will make you fishers of men.” Then they abandoned their nets and followed him.

Bulletin Reflections

We can be slow to respond to the invitation of God in our soul, whether in big or small things.

- What has God been calling me to do?
- Do I understand that putting off His voice is also putting off God’s joy and goodness?

Living Stewardship – Pillar of Formation

Simon, Andrew, James and John leave everything behind them and follow the call of Jesus. This week, open yourself to the Lord in prayer. Allow Him to speak to you and call to you as you sit in silence.

For recent converts to the Catholic Faith.

We pray to the Lord....

A WORD FROM POPE FRANCIS

In these, our troubles times, rent by the tragedies of war and menaced by the baneful tendency to accentuate differences and to incite conflict, may the Good News that in Jesus forgiveness triumphs over sin, life defeats death and love conquers fear, but proclaimed to the world with renewed fervor.

PRAYER

Lord, you call me to do the work of God in the world. Help me to say yes to your work of peace and reconciliation.

CHRIST-LIKE - Still searching for a New Year’s resolution? None is more worthy than becoming Christ-like. In fact, 19th century evangelist Henry Drummond calls it “the only thing in the whole world worth caring for.”

Two modern-day authors offer more insights. Stormie Omartian points out that we’re either making progress or backsliding on this goal. “There is no neutral position in the Lord,” she writes. “You are either becoming more like Christ every day or you’re becoming less like him.” And followers of Jesus must keep the goal always in focus. Christ-like is our “eventual destination,” writes Rick Warren, but the “journey will last a lifetime.”

The Lighter Side

From the Mouths of Babes

A little boy opened the big family Bible. He was fascinated as he fingered through the old pages. Suddenly, something fell out of the Bible. He picked it up and looked at it carefully.

What he saw was an old leaf that had been pressed between the pages.

“Mama, look what I found,” the boy called out to his mother, who was busy cooking dinner.

“What have you got there, dear?” she replied without turning to look at him.

Imagine her surprise when the young boy answered, “I think it is Adam’s underwear!”

When a six-year-old was asked where his grandmother lived, he responded confidently, “she lives at the airport. When we want her to visit, we go get her! Then, when her visit is done, we take her back to the airport!”
