Mass Times: Saturday, 6:00 PM Sunday, 8:00 AM
During Lent: Monday – Saturday - 8:00 AM (Holy Hour prior to all Weekday Masses)

“A Holy Hour will give you more strength, life and more consolation at the hour of your death and eternity. (St Alphonsus Ligouri)

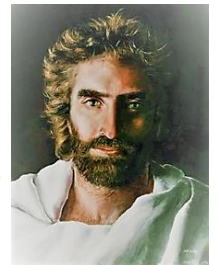

Reconciliation: Saturdays 5:30 to 5:45 (or by appointment)

"Welcome one another as Christ has welcomed you for the glory of God" states St Paul Romans 15:7.

Our God is a welcoming God and His Son, Jesus, also welcomes everyone into His presence. As parishioners of St John the Baptist parish we too wish to display this same welcoming attitude.

And so we say,

"Welcome to each of you who visit our Church. Welcome into our lives of faith, of family and of community. May God Bless You with Peace and All Good Gifts!

Third Sunday of Lent

March 13, 2022 -- Second Sunday of Lent

This is my chosen Son, listen to him

What Peter, James and John are seeing they don't fully grasp until their understanding is illuminated by the light of Easter. We have the advantage of Luke's post-Easter hindsight as we read his account. Luke alone stresses that the vision occurs while Jesus and the privileged three are praying. And Luke alone notes that the subject of Moses' and Elijah's conversation with Jesus is "the exodus he is to fulfill in Jerusalem." The mention of that key word is a powerful shorthand interpretation of Jesus' coming death and resurrection: what looks to be a crushing disaster will turn out to be the occasion of a liberation journey of which the first exodus is a foreshadowing.

Sunday Readings

Genesis 15:5-12, 17-18

The Lord made a covenant with Abram, saying: To your descendants I give this land.

Philippians 3:17 4:1

Our citizenship is in heaven, and from it we also await a savior, the Lord Jesus Christ.

Luke 9:28b-36

While he was praying his face changed in appearance and his clothing became dazzling white.

WORD FROM POPE FRANCIS

Belief in God and the worship of God are not enough to ensure that we are actually living in a way pleasing to God. A believer may be untrue to everything that his faith demands of him, and yet think he is close to God and better than others.

PRAYER Lord, you desire to be with me and walk with me along life's journey. Awaken in my heart a desire and commitment to be with you in prayer.

Reflection Questions

- What area of your life does Jesus want to transfigure into a brighter testimony for him?
- Light comes from energy consumed and transformed. How does that truth apply to your spiritual life?

Living Stewardship- Pillar of Prayer

In the Gospel reading for today, we hear about the Transfiguration of the Lord. This event also appears on the Fourth Luminous Mystery of the Rosary.

During Lent, we are called to practice prayer, fasting and almsgiving in preparation for Easter Sunday. How can you practice almsgiving for those in need in our community this Lent? Perhaps you could join others from our parish and make a gift to the Catholic Ministries Appeal.

For all the young people of our parish, that they may hear the call of Jesus and follow Him.

We pray to the Lord....

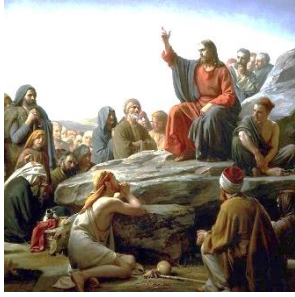

March 17, 2022 - St Patrick's Day

St. Patrick of Ireland is one of the world's most popular saints. He was born in Roman Britain and when he was fourteen or so, he was captured by Irish pirates during a raiding party and taken to Ireland as a slave to herd and tend sheep. At the time, Ireland was a land of Druids and pagans but Patrick turned to God.

Patrick's captivity lasted until he was twenty, when he escaped after having a dream from God in which he was told to leave Ireland by going to the coast. Patrick preached and converted all of Ireland for 40 years. He often used shamrocks to explain the Holy Trinity.

He died at Saul, where he had built the first Irish church. He is believed to be buried in Down Cathedral, Downpatrick. His grave was marked in 1990 with a granite stone.

March 20, 2022 -- Third Sunday of Lent

I tell you, if you do not repent, you will all perish.

This is not a nice psalm. The picture of those who, despite God's long patience, will not repent is not a nice picture. Sometimes it does us good to look our choices starkly in the face. Today's Gospel is a wake-up call. God's desire is that we make from our sins and rise to new life in Christ.

Repentance is a powerful word. We should use it not only in Lent but constantly because daily we commit acts, say words, have inward movements that we are sorry for what we had not said or done, and in some way wish to atone for. That is good. Sometimes God sends us sorrow, trials and sadness so that we repent, do penance, and turn our face to him.

Let us be reassured and let us open ourselves to whatever God sends us.

Sunday Readings

Exodus 3:1-8a, 13-15

God replied to Moses: I am who I am....This is what you will tell the Israelites: I AM has sent me to you.

1 Corinthians 10:1-6, 10-12

Whoever thinks he is standing secure should take care not to fall.

Luke 13:1-9

"Sir, leave it for this year also, and I shall cultivate the ground around it and fertilize it; it may bear fruit in the future."

Bulletin Reflections

- Is there a particular way I "desire evil things," as in the second reading?
- God shows me patience and mercy yet again this year. How shall I respond?

PRAYER

Lord, you are patient with me and never withhold your love and mercy from me. Strengthen me with your grace to become fully human, fully alive in the world.

From Mindful Meditations for Every Day of Lent & Easter

A Word From Pope Francis

Fasting, prayer and almsgiving.... expresses our conversion. The path of poverty and self-denial (fasting), concern and loving care for the poor (almsgiving), and childlike dialogue with the Father (prayer) make it possible for us to live lives of sincere faith, living hope and effective charity.

Points to Ponder

- What's the difference between love and marriage? Love is blind and marriage is an eye-opener!
- What do Alexander the Great and Winnie the Pooh have in common? Same middle name.
- When a teacher says, "Lord have mercy," is that the same as praying in school?

RELAY FOR LIFE: Please put Saturday, May 21 on your calendar for the Relay for Life. It will be held at the Todd Creech Memorial Park in Lawrenceburg from 3-10 PM. Our church team, "Catholics for a Cure," appreciates your continued support in the fight against cancer!
