"Welcome one another as Christ has welcomed you for the glory of God" states St Paul Romans 15:7.

Our God is a welcoming God and His Son, Jesus, also welcomes everyone into His presence. As parishioners of St John the Baptist parish we too wish to display this same welcoming attitude. And so we say,

"Welcome to each of you who visit our Church.
Welcome into our lives of faith, of family and of community.
May God Bless You with Peace and All Good Gifts!

Fifth Sunday of Easter

May 8, 2022 - Fourth Sunday of Easter

“My sheep hear my voice; I know them and they follow me.”

The good shepherd was speaking to his flock and wanted to lead them to greener pastures, but only the humble were able to hear him and be led to those springs of life-giving water.

Beware of the dangers of jealousy and pride that make us rebellious sheep who are unable to be led and taught by those who love us most. We think we know better than God, his word and his Church, separating from the flock and the shepherd.

May God grant us a listening and humble heart, open to discovering his truth through the Good Shepherd who constantly want to speak it to us.

Bringing Home the Word, May 8, 2022

Sunday Readings

Acts 13-14, 43-52

When the Jews saw the crowds, they were filled with jealousy and with violent abuse contradicted what Paul said.

Revelation 7:9, 14b-17

I had a vision of a great multitude, which no one could count, from every nation, race, people and tongue.

John 10:27-30

Jesus said, “My sheep hear my voice; I know them, and they follow me.”

WORD FROM POPE FRANCIS

A world that looks to the future is shortsighted. It may well increase its profits, but it will no longer see others as children....The human family is built upon mothers. A world in which maternal tenderness is dismissed as mere sentiment may be rich materially, but poor where the future is concerned.

Homily, January 1, 2019

PRAYER Risen Lord, give me the courage to be a loving shepherd and advocate for the poor and vulnerable.

Reflection Questions

Jealousy is a powerful thing. It deafens us from perceiving the good things God wants to give us.

- Is jealousy keeping me from being truly happy about another’s good fortune?
- Have I counted my blessings with a grateful heart?

Living Stewardship- Pillar of Formation

As we continue our journey through the Easter season, we hear more readings from the Acts of the Apostles.

When you hear the Acts of the Apostles, ponder how you can spread the Word of God to those around you. Let the Holy Spirit guide you, as the Apostles were so guided.

For all mothers in our parish, especially pregnant and young mothers.
We pray to the Lord....

Prayer to the Mother of the Lord for all mothers

Mary, on this day when we honor all mothers, we turn to you. We thank the Lord whom you serve for the great gift of motherhood. Never has it been known that anyone who sought your intercession was left unaided by grace. Dear Mother, thank you for your "Yes" to the invitation of the angel which brought heaven to earth and changed human history. You opened yourself to God's word and the Word was made flesh and dwelt among us.

Prayer to our Mother and for all mothers

Good and Gentle God, we pray in gratitude for our mothers and for all the women of theory who have joined with you in the wonder of bringing forth new life. You who became human through a woman, grant to all mothers the courage they need to face the uncertain future that life with children always brings.

Xavier University, Mothers Day Prayers

May 15, 2022 - Fifth Sunday of Easter

“Now is the Son of Man glorified, and God is glorified in him”

The glory of this kingdom isn't in church buildings or organizations, but it is the glory that Jesus mentions in today's Gospel. "Now is the Son of Man glorified and God is glorified in him" (John 13:31). It is the glory that comes from Jesus' faithful love toward the Father and his disciples, leading him to be enthroned on the cross and rule as the Lamb that was slain yet still stands. It is the new commandment of love that is their glory. Thus, the bride that is the Church will be great to the degree that it loves like Jesus, its husband and King.

Bringing Home the Word, May 15, 2022

Sunday Readings

Acts 14:21-27

They....reported what God had done with them and how he had opened the door of faith to the Gentiles.

Revelation 21:1-5a

The one who sat on the throne said, "Behold, I make all things new."

John 13:31-33a, 34-35

Jesus said, "I give you a new commandment: love one another. As I have loved you, so you also should love one another."

Reflection Questions

It was their common faith in Christ that was the foundation of this new kingdom of God.

- Do I look for what I have in common with another person? Or do I dwell on the differences?
- How willing am I to love another person despite our differences?

PRAYER Risen Jesus, you command us to love as you have loved. Cleanse my heart of pride, selfishness and prejudice so that I may love unconditionally.

Every Day of Easter Through Pentecost

A Word From Pope Francis

The Father is pleased when we love one another and we forgive each other from the heart. Then he gives us the Spirit. Let us....take the first step, in prayer, in fraternal encounter, in concrete charity. In this way, we will be more like the Father, who loves without counting the cost. And he will pour out upon us the Spirit of unity.

*Homily, Geneva
June 21, 2018*

Living Stewardship Pillar of Service

In today's Gospel, Jesus gives His disciples a new commandment.

Jesus tells His disciples to "love one another." This may sometimes be easier said than done, but if we make a commitment to do something nice to someone each day, to do a good deed for them, then we will be taking steps closer to God.

The Lighter Side

"Sonny, When I was a Lad...."

When a young boy pleaded to his grandfather to stop talking about the good old days, the elderly man quipped: "Why, back in my day, when I was your age, my mother used to send me to the grocery store with a single dollar bill. I would bring back six potatoes, a loaf of bread and a carton of milk! But nowadays, your generation has to watch out for all those newfangled security cameras."

The Lord's Laughter

Driving through Alabama, a man was listening to a country preacher on the car radio. The preacher, with a country "twang," admitted that he had trouble with drugs when he was young.

"My Momma drug me to church every Sunday," he said.
