FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

Jesus said: "My sheep hear my voice; I know them, and they follow me. I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish."

No one can take them out of my hand.

Good Shepherd,
let us hear you
in the beauty of the world,
in your poor, and in one another,
on the rocky and rough roads we travel.

Please pick us up
when our legs can walk no more.
Pull us from the brambles that snarl us.

Good Shepherd,
hold us close, in your arms. Speak to our hearts.

Reflections

CONNECTIONS

Some shepherds in biblical times kept their sheep in the safety of a common sheepfold at night. While the starry night sky wheeled above, the flocks would mingle together in the pen. In the morning, when shepherds returned to take their flocks back out onto the hillsides for a day of grazing, the sheep were all mixed up. When the animals heard the familiar voice of their shepherd, they recognized it. As he called them out, his own flock would emerge from the group and his sheep would follow the sound of his voice.

Jesus used this practical Gospel story to teach us to listen for his familiar voice so that when he calls us out we may be able to follow him.

INCLUDING YOUTH

It is worth noting that the reference to "the Jews" in John's Gospel does not reflect anti-Semitic bias as understood today. Stress that it refers to those who could not or would not be open to Jesus as the promised Messiah. Motives undoubtedly varied, but some, such as Paul himself, as we hear in Acts, were impelled by excessively fierce loyalty to the faith they were born in. What is our attitude toward those who oppose our beliefs? Do we respond with knee-jerk hate? Make any effort to understand their beliefs, religious or political? Pray for them?

Jesus promised that no one can take us out of the Father's hand. We can, however, choose to jump out.

QUOTES:

"Today we all can make someone's heart much brighter, and cause someone's load to somehow be much lighter." – William Arthur Ward

"A good vocation is simply a firm and constant will in which the called person has to serve God in the way and in the place God has called.

St. Francis De Sales

WORLD DAY OF PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS:

The themes of today's Scripture readings are that followers of Jesus are called to a) listen to the Shepherd's voice, b) receive His mercy with joy and the hope of heaven and c) proclaim His message to the world, despite of hardships. Rather than praying that God calls more men and women, but more people answer!

On this World Day of Prayer for Vocations, we pray for a new openness to priestly and religious vocations among all Catholic youth.

MAY IS THE MONTH OF MARY:

May, the month in which the earth springs into bloom (at least in the Northern Hemisphere) and we start thinking about planting gardens, family picnics, and making vacation plans.

It's also the Month of Mary.

For centuries, the Catholic Church has set aside the entire month of May to honor Mary, Mother of God. Not just a day in May, mind you, but the entire month.

For May, give Mary a special spot in your prayer corner. It can be a statue or picture, but place there some representation of our Blessed Mother. Make it appealing and a real tribute to her beauty and virtue.

STEWARDSHIP

Paul and Barnabas encountered both violent rejection and joyful acceptance of the message that they preached. We, too, may meet with mixed reactions when we use our gifts in the service of God. The Gospel assures us, the reward for those who follow faithfully is eternal life.
