Sunday Obligation

Saturday 6:00 PM
Sunday 8:00 AM

"Welcome one another as Christ has welcomed you for the glory of God" states St Paul Romans 15:7.

Our God is a welcoming God and His Son, Jesus, also welcomes everyone into His presence. As parishioners of St John the Baptist parish we too wish to display this same welcoming attitude. And so we say,

"Welcome to each of you who visit our Church.
Welcome into our lives of faith, of family and of community.
May God Bless You with Peace and All Good Gifts!

Seventh Sunday of Easter

May 22, 2022 - Sixth Sunday of Easter

Christ's promise at the Last Supper "Whoever loves me will keep my word, and my Father and I will make our dwelling with him"—is all that we need to be happy.

Barnabas and Paul "dedicate their lives to the name of our Lord Jesus Christ" that they might gleam with the splendor of God and draw others into the apostolic faith.

God acknowledges such dedication by ordaining that the names of the twelve apostles be inscribed on the wall of the heavenly Jerusalem. The same is offered to us who refuse to let our hearts be troubled, but who cling to the name of Christ instead.

Magnificat, May, 2022

Sunday Readings

Acts 15:1-2, 22-29

It is the decision of the holy Spirit and of us not to place on you any burden beyond these necessities.

Revelation 21:10-14, 22-23

The city had no need of sun or moon to shine on it, for the glory of God gave it light.

John 14:23-29

Jesus said, "The holy Spirit that the Father will send in my name—he will teach you everything and remind you of all that I told you."

Word from Pope Francis

Jesus says that true authority is when one performs service; it is in serving, not exploiting others. The vineyard is the Lord's, not ours. Authority is a service, and as such should be exercised for the good of all and for the dissemination of the Gospel. It is awful to see when people who have authority in the Church seek their own interests.

PRAYER Risen Lord, your death and resurrection brought peace to the world. Help me to be an instrument of your peace to others.

Reflection Questions

- Are there things I can let go of to make my home more peaceful?
- Are there attitudes I can let go of to make my heart and mind more peaceful?

Living Stewardship- Pillar of Formation

In today's Gospel, Jesus assures us that the Holy Spirit will be with us and guide us in our Faith.

Stewardship
A way of living

Look back to Easter Sunday. From Easter Sunday till now, how have you grown in your faith? Ask the Holy Spirit to make you aware of certain areas of your life that need improvement.

Thursday, May 26, 2022 – The Ascension of the Lord

"The Ascension of Jesus into heaven," Pope Francis said, "acquaints us with this deeply consoling reality on our journey: in Christ, true God and true man, our humanity was taken to God. Christ opened the path to us. If we entrust our life to him, if we let ourselves be guided by him, we are certain to be in safe hands, in the hands of our Savior."

This is why, as Pope Benedict XVI wrote, it would be a mistake to interpret the Ascension as "the temporary absence of Christ from the world." Rather, "we go to heaven to the extent that we go to Jesus Christ and enter into him." Heaven is a person: "Jesus himself is what we call 'heaven.'"

Shout to God with Cries of Gladness, Alleluia!

May 29, 2022 - Fifth Sunday of Easter

*The Lord is king, the most high over all the earth.
Alleluia!*

Jesus lifts his eyes to heaven and prays to his Father “that all may be one.” Stephen “looks up intently to heaven” and sees Jesus—the One who makes that unity happen. Saul—soon to be Paul—was a witness to Stephen’s stoning. Shortly after, when Saul experienced the same miracle—an encounter with Christ from the heavens—perhaps he recalled Stephen’s Christ-like death and perfect charity: “Lord, do not hold this sin against them.” Jesus, “the root and offspring of David, the bright morning star,” overcomes the darkness in our lives. His words reverberate in our hearts: “Yes, I am coming soon.” And our simplest prayer can be: “Amen! Come, Lord Jesus!”

Magnificat, May 2022

Sunday Readings

Acts 1:1-11

“You will receive power when the holy Spirit comes upon you, and you will be my witnesses...to the ends of the earth.”

Ephesians 1:17-23

And he put all things beneath his feet and gave him as head over all things to the church.

Luke 24:46-53

As he blessed them he parted from them and was taken up to heaven. The amazing truth is that Jesus has opened heaven for us, cheering on each of us to join him forever!

Reflection Questions

- Do I live like a person who is aware that I am on my way to heaven?
- How can I live this week with a more heavenly perspective?

Jesus Awaits Us

Imagine Jesus as your intercessor in heaven, pleading your case as a brother before our loving Father! If God is for us, who can be against us?

So, let’s live with newfound confidence. Jesus is in heaven today interceding for us, inaugurating his kingdom, and preparing our eternal home.

“And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back again and take you to myself, so that where I am you also may be”

John 14:3

PRAYER Risen Lord, your resurrection and ascension give witness to God’s power. May my life bear witness to God’s love, compassion, forgiveness and peace.

A Word From Pope Francis

Jesus is like a roped guide climbing a mountain who, on reaching the summit, pulls us up to him and leads us to God. If we entrust our life to him, if we let ourselves be guided by him, we are certain to be in safe hands, in the hands of our Savior, our Advocate.

Living Stewardship

Pillar of Hospitality

Even though He has ascended into Heaven, we are NEVER alone.

As we begin to enter into the summer months, how can we practice the Stewardship pillar of Hospitality? One way is by still remembering our brothers and sisters in need, by giving to a local food pantry.

who gave their lives for this country.

THE LIGHTER SIDE

Love Laughs: A husband and wife were dining at a five-star restaurant. When their food arrived, the husband immediately started to dig in. "Let's eat," he said emphatically. His wife reminded him, "Honey you always say grace at home before your dinner!" Her husband replied, "That's at home, my dear. Here, the chef knows how to cook."

A couple was sitting in their living room, sipping wine. Out of the blue, the wife said, "I love you." To which the husband responded, "Is that you or the wine talking?" "It's me," said the wife, "talking to the wine."

From the Mouth of Babes: A bigger allowance would allow me to tithe more.
