13TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

*"If I but Touch
His Clothes, I Shall Be Cured..."*

An official, Jairus, falls at Jesus' feet and pleads
A suffering lady boldly touches his cloak.
And you grant their wishes through your touch.

Jesus, we believe.
Let your healing flow into us, too,
through your poor, your sick, your daisies,
music, books, hummingbirds, skies.
Let us find you everywhere.
Please touch us with
your grace.
(Anne Osdieck)

SET YOUR FAITH ON FIRE

...It helps me set my Faith on fire when I think of Christians who live where it is difficult to practice their Faith, knowing that I myself am free to do so.

...A person who sets my Faith on fire is a relative who is able to forgive others who have hurt her, and she makes a point of being kind and thoughtful to a person who is mean to her.

A PRAYER FOR THE 4TH

Lord Jesus, thou who art the way, the truth and the life; hear us as we pray for the truth that shall make all free. Teach us that liberty is not only to be loved but also to be lived. Liberty is too precious a thing to be buried in books. It costs too much to be hoarded. Help us see that our liberty is not the right to do as we please, but the opportunity to please to do what is right. (Peter Marshall before the U.S. Senate)

SUNDAY REFLECTIONS CONNECTION

Two phrases in the Gospel might challenge us in practical ways: First, "Jesus had crossed again ... to the other side." His "crossing over" brought him into two situations in need of healing. Crossing over might be a reminder to us to go out of our way to help someone. Or, perhaps, positioning ourselves to look at a situation from another's point of view, even an opposing one.

Second, "Who has touched my clothes?" shows us a Jesus who is aware of his surroundings, not out of fear but in readiness to respond to those in need. As individuals and faith communities, we are challenged by Jesus to be alert to welcoming, listening, healing and forgiving.

INCLUDING YOUTH

"There is not a destructive drug among them" (Wisdom 1:14) may seem a ludicrously naïve statement to an age group constantly warned about destructive drugs, yet it's true. Wisdom is not referring to manufactured drugs such as heroin and opioids. Rather it is our misuse of things such as alcohol and sensory pleasures that leads to destruction.

In the Gospel, the woman had faith Jesus could heal her, but she avoided asking him directly. When healing happened, she was scared. Youth are sometimes reluctant (perhaps even afraid) to ask for spiritual healing because it might come with strings attached – to no longer indulge in the destructive behavior.

ADORATION - There will be Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament at St. Maurice Church on Friday, July 6, 8:00 AM to 12:00 Noon.

STEWARDSHIP

Today's reading from St Paul explains the "divine economy" of stewardship – "The relief of others ought not to impoverish you; there should be a certain equality. Your plenty at the present time should supply their need so that surplus may in turn one day supply your need."
