JULY 3, 2022

14th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Go on your way: behold, I am sending you like lambs among wolves

As a mother will bear her babe in arms, so you cradle us in your endless love.

Please, now, send us out with no sack, no sandals, no moneybags, yet with wealth beyond all telling: your grace and your love for your poor.

Bringing Home the Word June 2022

From ages past the prophet Isaiah has promised that “the Lord’s power shall be known to his servants,” and Christ gives the seventy-two the ability to bestow peace, cure the sick, and survive among “wolves” like “lambs.” The seventy-two return, rejoicing at their newfound power: “Even the demons are subject to us because of your name.” But Jesus wants them to realize the greater and essential dignity he has given them: “rejoice because your names are written in heaven.” We, too, can marvel that “the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ” has made us a new creation. Peace and mercy and a place in his Kingdom enable us to boast in the cross and find comfort with the Lord.

Magnificat – July 2022

Sunday Readings

Isaiah 66:10-14c

For thus says the Lord: I will spread prosperity over Jerusalem like a river, like an overflowing torrent.

Galatians 6:14-18

From now on, let no one make troubles for me; for I bear the marks of Jesus on my body.

Luke 10: 1-12, 17-20

Jesus said to them, “The harvest is abundant but the laborers are few.”

A Word from Pope Francis

If politics must truly be at the service of the human person, it follows that it cannot be a slave to the economy and finance. Politics is, instead, an expression of our compelling need to live as one, in order to build as one the greatest common good....

*Address to United States Congress,
Washington DC, September 24, 2015*

Reflection Questions

- Is material wealth too much of a concern of mine?
- How can my family and I learn to focus on eternal treasures?

The Fourth of July

Lord God Almighty, in whose name the founders of this country won liberty for themselves and for us, and lit the torch of freedom for nations then unborn.

Grant that we and all the people of this land may have the grace to maintain our liberties in righteousness and peace; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

PRAYER Ever living God, give us the grace to protect the gift of freedom and bless our efforts to embrace a freedom that brings abundant life for all and leads us to true happiness in you. Amen

*From Prayers for our Country
By Deborah Meister & Paige Byrne Shortal*

Bulletin Reflection:

In today’s Gospel, Jesus sends out the disciples to preach the Good News and cast out demons.

Living Stewardship – Pillar of Formation:

The Gospel reading for today is especially important for us stewards. We must remember that we are sent out by God, for God to spread God’s word to others. Pray that you may be guided by the Holy Spirit as you live your life as a steward of the Faith.

General Intercession:

For all priests, that they may be good shepherds of their flocks.

We pray to the Lord...

JULY 10, 2022 - 15TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

He said to Jesus, "And who is my neighbor?"

Lord, I love you. Expand my heart: Let me love my neighbors.
Make us brave enough to cleanse wounds, work to get gun and clean air laws, give shelter to travelers when needed, help pay bills and lend a helping hand.
When we love you in our neighbor, let us find you in ourselves.

Liturgy.slu.edu

The question from Like posed to Jesus "Who is my neighbor?" prompts one of the most famous stories every told. The priest, whatever his reasons, had more important commitments than helping the poor. The Levite, perhaps he thought someone else would stop and help. Then a Samaritan stopped to help. In an obvious sense, Jesus is telling us to be good Samaritans – that is, to be compassionate and generous to neighbors in need – not just people like us, but to aliens and strangers.

But on another level, perhaps we represent the wounded person by the roadside, in need of healing and restoration from sin. It is Christ himself who wants to pick us up, bind our wounds and pay for our care. And he pays this debt, of course, on the cross. Are we willing to admit that we need healing from a "Samaritan" like Jesus?

Bringing Home the Word

Sunday Readings

Deuteronomy 30:10-14

Moses said, "No, it is something very near to you, in your mouth and in your heart, to do it."

Colossians 1:15-20

He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation.

Luke: 10:25-37

Jesus said, "A Samaritan traveler who came upon him was moved with compassion at the sight."

Reflection Questions

A neighbor is one who I love as myself.

- How am I like the Good Samaritan?
- How am I like the traveler in need of healing?

A Word From Pope Francis

Each day we have to decide whether to be Good Samaritans or indifferent bystanders. And, if we extend our gaze to the history of our own lives...All of us have in ourselves something of the wounded man, something of the robber, something of the passers-by, and something of the Good Samaritan.

*Fratelli Tutti, Encyclical
October 3, 2022*

PRAYER Caring God, when we see someone in need, let us stop and be present to the needs of that person. Help us to become honorable people doing honorable deeds and be good neighbors to one another. Amen
