THE 14TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Go on your way; behold I am sending you like lambs among wolves

Like a mother who bears her babe in arms,
so you cradle us in your endless love.
Please, now, send us out with no sack, no sandals, no moneybags, yet with wealth beyond all telling.
Your grace and your love for your poor.

PRAYER for the First Reading

As a mother comforts her child, so will I comfort you.

Father in heaven,
Was there ever a time when you held back your love,
The treasure we cannot ask or imagine?
You sent your only son.
We can see you and feel you within our hearts.
We rejoice and are glad.

PRAYER for the Second Reading

Holy Spirit of God,
Show us the world as Christ saw it from his cross.
Be at our side as, like Paul,
We see what is demanded in our time.
Let us hold what is holy
And let go of all that is not.

CONNECTIONS

Today's Gospel is a prime directive for all Christians. Jesus sends us out. Our human responses vary greatly. Some "in-your-face evangelists" station themselves on street corners with cardboard "Jesus Saves" signs. Some, in pairs, go door-to-door to share invitations and literature; others email inspirational messages to friends, volunteer for good causes, write a check or silently wear a cross from their necks. There is comfort in the quote attributed to St Francis of Assisi: "Preach the Gospel at all times and if necessary, use words."

Reflections

God will surely be with us as he was when a miraculous ceasefire gave Mother Teresa time to lead a rescue of mentally disabled children trapped in a Beirut war zone.

INCLUDING YOUTH

Parents and other authority figures have perennially delivered this message to youth. "It is dangerous out there! The world is full of bad people and bad ideas that can ruin your lives." Youth have perennially replies; "It is not dangerous out there – it's fun and exciting."

Jesus seems to make an observation even more extreme: "Behold, I am sending you like lambs among wolves." Even lambs trained in Tae Kwan Do don't stand a chance against wolves. While protectiveness can certainly be overdone, its need is not based on groundless fantasy. Faith has to be strong to withstand the wolves of amorality and hedonism.

A WORD FROM POPE FRANCIS

"Let us ask for the grace not to be lukewarm Christians living by half measures, allowing our love to grow cold", said Pope

Francis. "Let us rediscover who we truly are through a daily relationship with Jesus and through the power of His forgiveness."

STEWARDSHIP

"The harvest is rich," Jesus tells the seventy-two in today's Gospel, "but the workers are few." The situation is the same today. How can I help with God's harvest? Am I called into the field? Am I one who could provide food or shelter or wages to those who toil in the fields of the Lord?

MISSIONARY PRIEST Fr. Douglas Kipoech from the Catholic diocese of Nakuru, Kenya (East Africa) will be visiting our parish next weekend, July 13-14. Presently his diocese is involved in pastoral care and promoting human development activities to a Catholic population of approximately 650,000 in the counties of Nakuru and Baringo. Drought is ravaging thousands and dangerously leaving many more to be dependent on food aid. There are reports of human and livestock deaths as a result of acute food shortage.

School drop-outs have also increased significantly with kids abandoning learning to become migrant herders. In most of the parishes, priests and sisters are serving hundreds of families with the much-needed food, water and medical supplies.

Please prayerfully consider giving financial to our brothers and sisters in Africa. A second collection will be taken up after the gifts and bread and wine are brought forward. Thank you.

SCHOOL SUPPLIES The Impact Center in Versailles is asking our help in collecting backpacks and school supplies for children in the community. They would like all backpacks to be the same so they ask that you give a financial donation and they will purchase them. If you choose to purchase the folders or crayons place them in the box in the vestibule of church. All donations and supplies need to be in church by the weekend of July 27 - 28 Thank you!

LADIES DAY OUT This is your last opportunity to sign up for the Ladies Annual Day Out on this Tuesday, July 9, 11:00 AM. They will be having a meal at Crossroads Restaurant. This is an excellent opportunity to socialize with the ladies of the parish.

ESTATE St. John Church received a check in the amount of $1,000.00 from the estate of Betty Hallgarth. Let us express our appreciation for this gift by continuing to ask God to receive her into His Eternal Presence!

Prayer presenter: Jim Brun (Retreat Facilitator) Sunday, July 14th 10:45AM to noon. Come and learn the process of entering into the sacred space of Centering Prayer.

FILM, FAITH & FRANCISCANISM, Finding Joe - Friday, July 12, 6:30 to 9:00 PM. Freewill Donation. In the early 20th century, while studying world mythology, Joseph Campbell discovered a pattern hidden in every story ever told and he called it "the hero's journey".
