14TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"And Many Who Heard Him Were Astonished"

Who is he?
Is he merely Mary's son?
Just a carpenter?

What if this amazed crowd found out that in the beginning was the Word and the Word was with God and the Word was God and the world came to be through him?

God's world does not know its maker.
Christ, artist,
craft us to know you,
so that we can love you well.
Healer of our hearts, minds and souls,

take us into your holy body and blood.
(Anne Osdieck. Used with Permission)

SET YOUR FAITH ON FIRE

...It uplifts my faith when I am with a person that tries to understand another person's point of view, even if he/she disagrees with that person.

...Who sets my faith on fire? A person who fights against their stubbornness when being corrected and tries to be cooperative.

...My faith is set on fire when I see a person put their wants aside for the good of others.

SUNDAY REFLECTIONS CONNECTION

Oh, that we could say once a week or even once a month that someone “took offence” at us like they did of Jesus. It might be speaking up to family or friends when a racial slur is used or when a person is teased because of their appearance, or, There are numerous such occasions when we often choose to be silent or to laugh politely in order not to offend.

Another option is at least to support the one who dares to offend like Jesus did. At times like these, we might intentionally recall God’s message to Paul, “My grace is sufficient for you.”

INCLUDING YOUTH

Youth are often attracted to the (perceived) spectacular – especially by entertainers. Sometimes God, sadly, appears ordinary by comparison, just as Jesus did in today’s Gospel. Without minimizing the talent or integrity of the performers (make this very clear!), propose which name they would think of or call out to from a burning building or when being pursued by a pack of wild dogs. Some choices: Rihanna, Maroon 5, Eminem, Lady Gaga and God.

Paul’s “thorn in the flesh” is subject to much speculation – perhaps a spiritual weakness or repeated mistake. It is tempting for youth, after another failure yet again, to conclude, “Why even try to fight it?”

PARISH SUPPORT

Sunday Collection $ 3,835.00

Peter's Pence 100.00

" May Your Week Be Blessed By God!"

STEWARDSHIP

Today's readings are about being chosen and sent. The prophet Amos was chosen by the Lord and sent to us his talents for the people of God. The Gospel recounts the story of the sending of the twelve. In the second reading, St Paul reminds us that we, too, are chosen. For what have I been chosen? To whom have I been sent?

WELCOME Please extend a warm welcome to Father Binoy Akkalayil, visiting our parish on behalf of the Order of the Most Holy Trinity. For over 810 years in the world, 107 years in the United States and 30 years in India, Trinitarians have chosen to bear witness to God's love in communities where the effects of persecution and poverty are felt most severely. Your support and prayers are vital to furthering their missionary work for the persecuted, poor, marginalized, sick and suffering. Thank you.
