THE 30TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

We all forgiveness easy, but it right. forgive hurt us, we know that is seldom is always When we those who honor God.

But when we remain bitter or resentful toward others, we disobey God with unhappy results.

If there exists even one person, alive or dead, whom you have not forgiven, seriously consider this year to forgive that person - for heaven's sake. Bitterness, anger and regret are not part of God's plan for us.

Forgiveness is!

SEASON OF CREATION:

Lord - guide our prayer and action to be a source of renewable energy for the earth. May we slow down amidst the hustle and bustle of the world to start building peace and instilling a love of creation in the hearts of those around us.

PRAYER

Lord, I am grateful you are close to the brokenhearted. In my brokenness I call on you. Have mercy on me, a sinner, small and precious in your eyes.

*From Grateful Meditations for Every Day
Rev Warren J Savage & Mary Ann McSweeney*

REFLECTION QUESTIONS

- In disagreements with others, do I feel the need to win or be "right"?
- When dealing with others do I try to put myself "in the other person's shoes"?

A WORD FROM POPE FRANCIS

Sadly, we are witnessing a presentation of religion and religious values in a fundamentalist way, which is used to justify the spread of hatred, discrimination and violence. The justification of such crimes on the basis of religious ideas is unacceptable, for "God is not the author of confusion, but of peace." (1 Corinthians 14:33)

*Joint declaration with the pope of the Armenian Apostolic Church
June 26, 2016*

SANTUARY LIGHT The Sanctuary Light burns from October 27 through November 2 for Jack Newhart.

STEWARDSHIP

Both the first reading and today's psalm say clearly that the Lord hears the cry of the poor. Have I been given the gifts – of time or money or abilities – to be the means by which God answers their need?
