THE 32ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

RECONCILE WITH OTHERS

The story is told of a father and his son who were at odds with one another.

For years the son chose to never visit his father or communicate with him because his father treated him poorly for much of his young life. Only after the adult son prayed to turn his heart around and chose to focus on finding the good in his father did he gradually forgive him.

To reconnect with anyone who has hurt us takes much prayer, a big heart and a large amount of vulnerability. We must be willing to let go of the past and open our heart to others in the way God does with us. Is there anyone to whom you need to reconcile? FORGIVE, FOR HEAVENS SAKE.

32nd. SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME KEEP YOUR LAMPS

The bridegroom comes; go out to meet him. The Lord Jesus himself comes to greet us. It is the wedding feast of the Lamb. We are the bridesmaids, but also the bride. We are wise if we are always ready to meet our Lord and Savior, and foolish if we are not present and listening when he calls us. Be wise, listen to God's wisdom, and be ready when the trumpet of God sounds and the voice of the archangel announces the coming of the Lord! Are you wise or foolish?

PRAYER

Lord, I am grateful for the promise of eternal life. Help me to live as a child of the resurrection.

*From Grateful Meditations for Every Day
Rev Warren J Savage & Mary Ann McSweeney*

REFLECTION QUESTIONS

- How do I envision my day of judgment and eternity thereafter?
- How does that vision influence my attitudes and behavior here on earth today?

A WORD FROM POPE FRANCIS

The Eucharist demands that we be members of the one body of the Church. Those who approach the Body and Blood of Christ may not wound that same Body by creating scandalous distinctions and divisions among its members. This is what it means to “discern” the body of the Lord.

*--On Love in the Family

STEWARDSHIP In today's second reading, St Paul prays that the Thessalonians may be strengthened “in every good deed and word.” May we, too, be strengthened and empowered to use our time and talents for the good of others.
