33RD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Shine
like a Star

33rd SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"The wise shall shine brightly like the splendor of the firmament."

Look up
at the splendid universe,
light years away from the dimness of our earth.

The wise are shining like these stars,
giving out points of light, showing the way.

How did these attain such heights?

By offering a cup of water,
or their house, or their food.
or anything else they could find.

They gave away their time, their money and their lives; never counted the cost.

They took everything they had
and also what they hadn't,
and spent a lifetime
teaching others
how to use
what is given.

Lord, Let these stars guide us.

FEAST OF THANKSGIVING

"We can't have too much gratitude," says Sr. Joyce Rupp in her book "God's Enduring Presence." She also says that "being grateful" makes all the difference in how each day unfolds. If we wake to a new day of life with a grateful heart, we will then live gratefully throughout the day.

Thanksgiving Day is certainly a time to pause and give thanks to God for each and every gift God has so generously bestowed on us. Even more important though is "thanksgiving", living each day in a spirit of deep gratitude. Yes, let us walk in thanksgiving and this year may we walk in thanksgiving in faith and hope and love!

SUNDAY REFLECTIONS

YOUTH

The apocalyptic descriptions in Daniel and those ascribed to Jesus in Mark both drive home the same idea: A time really will come when the earthly order of things will be uprooted and gone. All the jockeying for power, control, popularity and "success," even if achieved on a grandiose scale, will count for nothing if done only for personal gain or at the expense of others. Should you not try to be successful? Live a bare subsistence in a deserted place? No. Try hard to succeed. But check your motivation, your means of getting there, and what you do with superfluous gain.

CONNECTIONS Today's Gospel images are dramatic. Tribulations come first, then the sun and moon go dark. As the temperature plummets, the stars in the black sky spin out of control. Then, in a burst of light, we gasp at the awesome coming of Jesus amidst a host of angels.

This imagery might also describe what happens when we die, when the promise of things to come are fulfilled at an unknown future date. It is guaranteed that "this generation will not pass away until all these things have taken place." We may not like to think our life will end, but it will. Our bodies will grow cold, so grab your jacket of faith to stay warm, until you see the face of Jesus, who comes to welcome you to eternal paradise.

UNITED CATHOLIC APPEAL - "ALL for the SAKE of OTHERS." Through our gift to this year's United Catholic Appeal God will work through our hands and we will do together what we cannot do alone. Please fill out your Intention Card and send your gift directly to the Archdiocese. In behalf of all who will be assisted through your gift, I thank you.

The readings today speak of the end of the world and the coming of the kingdom. The bishops' pastoral on stewardship says clearly that "that 'life to come' is in continuity with this present life through the human goods, the worthy human purposes, which people foster now." May our good stewardship help us to be numbered among the chosen on the last day!
